Programme

Day 1 – Arrival in Calabria and Transfer to Tropea

Arrival at Lamezia Terme Airport. Welcome by the German-speaking tour guide and transfer by coach to the Hotel in Tropea-Parghelia.
After check-in, depending on arrival time, some free time is available to relax or take a first stroll.
Welcome aperitif by the pool.
Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

Day 2 – Tropea and Capo Vaticano

Breakfast at the hotel.
In the morning, a visit to Tropea, one of the best-known coastal towns of Calabria. During the walk through the historic old town, guests discover small alleys, elegant palazzi, characteristic squares and impressive viewpoints over the Tyrrhenian Sea.
Among the most important sights are the Norman cathedral and the famous pilgrimage church of Santa Maria dell'Isola, perched on a rock above the sea.
Afterwards, continue to Capo Vaticano. The coastal landscape is known for its steep cliffs, small bays and panoramic views of the sea and the Aeolian Islands.
At sunset, wine tasting at a local winery overlooking the sea of Tropea.
Return to the hotel, dinner and overnight stay.

Where the Sun Meets the Sea of Calabria

Day 3 – Free Time or Optional Excursion to Lipari, Vulcano and Stromboli
Breakfast at the hotel.
The last is at leisure. They can relax by the sea, explore Tropea independently, or take part in an optional excursion to the Aeolian Islands.

Optional excursion: Lipari, Vulcano and Stromboli – the Aeolian pearls between history and nature.
Transfer from the hotel to the port of Reggio Calabria or Villa San Giovanni. Departure by speedboat to the Aeolian Islands, a UNESCO World Heritage site.
First stop on Lipari, the largest island of the archipelago. Free time to visit the old town, the Cathedral of San Bartolomeo and the characteristic island architecture. During the boat trip, guests can admire the Faraglioni rocks and the bright pumice-stone coastline.
Afterwards, continue to Vulcano, known for its volcanic landscape, sulphurous waters and natural sulphur springs. Free time for a walk, individual sightseeing or time by the sea. Circumnavigation of Stromboli.
In the afternoon, return by speedboat to Calabria and transfer to the hotel.
Overnight stay at the hotel.

(The excursion depends on weather and sea conditions. Travel times, departure port and itinerary may be changed by the shipping company.)

Day 4 – Serra San Bruno and Pizzo
Breakfast at the hotel.
Drive to Serra San Bruno, a town in the green mountains of Calabria known for its forests, its peaceful atmosphere and its centuries-old Carthusian tradition.
Visit to the historic town centre and the surroundings of the famous Charterhouse (Certosa) of Serra San Bruno. The monastery was founded in the Middle Ages and is one of the most important religious sites in the region.
Afterwards, continue towards the coast. A hearty picnic is served at an equipped seaside facility.
In the afternoon, visit Pizzo, a charming coastal town with narrow alleys, small squares and wonderful views over the Gulf of Sant'Eufemia. Walk through the historic centre and free time for individual exploration.
Return to the hotel, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 5 – Reggio Calabria and Scilla
Breakfast at the hotel.
Drive to Reggio Calabria, the largest city in Calabria and cultural centre on the Strait of Messina.
Visit to the National Archaeological Museum of Reggio Calabria. The museum houses important finds from the era of Magna Graecia and the world-famous Riace Bronzes.
Afterwards, a walk along the Lungomare Falcomatà waterfront promenade, offering a beautiful view of the Sicilian coast and Mount Etna.
Continue to Scilla, a traditional fishing village linked to the myths of Odysseus. Visit the historic fishing quarter of Chianalea, whose houses were built directly on the water. Walk through the narrow alleys and past the small fishing boats.
Return to the hotel, dinner and overnight stay.
